

Commercial One

Kijaun: The topic today is this house would allow mega cruise ships to come into Bermuda.

Cathryn: I agree with this statement because it would bring a lot more people into the Island.

Caitlin: Yeah, but would these people spend money?

Kallan: Well what about the fishing industry? Do you think it should be given top priority to develop our economy?

Cathryn: Why not? We are surrounded by water and everybody loves Bermuda fish.

Kijaun: Hi. I'm Kijaun,

Caitlin: I'm Caitlin

Cathryn: I'm Cathryn

Kallan: And I'm Kallan

Caitlin: If you like hearing both sides of an argument

Kijaun: Then come and see us at the 2nd Annual Junior Debate Competition

Cathryn: On Saturday, October 18th and Sunday October 19th at the Eden Project

Kallan: In the Music Room at Cedarbridge Academy.

All: See you there.

Sponsored by the Department of Consumer Affairs and Cox Hallett Wilkinson.

Commercial 2

JahQuille: Hey Azzura, I'm excited about being a part of the Junior Debate Competition.

Genevieve: Me too JahQuille. It's my first time doing this.

JahQuille: Why are you doing it?

Genevieve: Because you can prove your point strongly, while learning about the world around you. And I love to talk in front of an audience.

JahQuille: Well you'll certainly get to do that on October 18th and 19th at the 2nd Annual Junior Debate Competition.

Genevieve: Yeah, it's a part of the Eden Project and will be held in the Music Room at Cedarbridge Academy

Both: See you there

Sponsored by the Department of Consumer Affairs and Cox Hallett
Wilkinson

Commercial 3:

Fredrika: (talking like she is practicing her speech) Allowing mega cruise ships into Bermuda would bring more people who would spend more money on the island.

Mahkail: What are you doing Fredrika?

Fredrika: I'm practicing my speech for the debate competition Mahkail

Mahkail: That's right. The 2nd Annual Junior Debate Competition

Fredrika: Yes. It is a part of the Eden Project and this year it will be held in the Music Room at Cedarbridge Academy

Mahkail: On Saturday October 18th and Sunday, October 19th. All our schoolmates are invited to come.

Fredrika: And don't forget families too!

Both: See you there.

Sponsored by the Department of Consumer Affairs and Cox Hallett
Wilkinson